

PRACTICAL VALUATION

VOLUME 32

● BANKS ● FLATS ● CAPITAL GAINS

QUESTIONS & OPINIONS

B. KANAGA SABAPATHY

CONTENTS

1. Let us refresh our knowledge
2. Certain points to be remembered by a valuer
3. Valuation for banks
 - 3.1. An introduction to valuation for banks
 - 3.2. Book value of an industrial land and building
 - 3.3. Different depreciations for different purposes
 - 3.4. Whether market value can be much more than the cost when the property was purchased only one month back?
 - 3.5. Certain typical cases where valuers faced enquires when they did valuation for banks
 - 3.6. Practical doubts related to valuation for banks
4. Valuation of flats
 - 4.1. Ten points to be borne in mind while valuing a flat
 - 4.2. How to calculate the FSI, plot coverage, composite rate, construction cost and project cost?
 - 4.3. Stage value of flats in an apartment building
 - 4.4. Practical doubts related to valuation of flats
5. Capital gains
 - 5.1. Ten points to be remembered by a registered valuer when he wants to do valuation for capital gains

- 5.2. Cost inflation indices
- 5.3. Capital gains - amendment in the budget 2020
- 5.4. Is it acceptable to ascertain the land value by adopting cost inflation indices in the reverse direction?
- 5.5. How a registered valuer can help the assessee to save the capital gain tax?
- 5.6. How does capital gain tax vary when different methods of depreciation are adopted?
- 5.7. When the age of the building is more than 118 years, how to calculate depreciation while determining the Fair Market Value as on 01.04.2001?
- 5.8. Capital gains - A model report on ascertaining FMV of the property as on 01.04.2001
- 5.9. When a property is sold in auction under SARFAESI Act, who is responsible for paying the capital gain?
- 5.10. Practical doubts related to valuation for capital gains
- 6. Questions & Opinions
- 7. Empanelment of chartered engineer for valuation of second-hand machinery and abandoned goods in the jurisdiction of commissioner of customs
- 8. Index